

WHO ME? A HOLY TV??!

She came to us in the usual condition, face contorted with pain and stress, and tears very near the surface. Challenged in her marriage relationship and her destiny having been sidelined, she was just trying to survive an overwhelmingly hopeless life. This new friend seeking prayer ministry was far from a picture of the “abundant life” that Jesus came to make available for us!

We set out to apply what God has been showing us (from last month’s letter) about His protocol for getting His will done on earth as it is in heaven:

1. Receive His burden for someone or some issue.
2. Let Him paint you a picture of His intentions.
3. Then, with authority, declare His will by binding and loosing on earth what has already been bound or loosed in heaven. (Matt. 16:19 Amplified)

As duly authorized ambassadors, we prayed these things with our new friend: we bound (declared illegal, therefore stopped) the enemy’s lies regarding her worthless identity and hopeless destiny, and loosed (declared appropriate) the ability to receive revelation from God, courage to respond and renewal of her mind through an encounter with her Redeemer. The glorious personal breakthroughs that followed were wonderful to witness!

Her testimony by permission:

*“Having no expectations and little knowledge of prayer counseling, I was astounded to find that the root of 40 years of pain and lonely feelings of isolation could be addressed and released after a 3 part (session) encounter. My wrong assumption that my current relationship and family woes are a result from adult decisions and more recent history rather than that of early wrong relationships with my childhood family, has kept me in a cycle of abuse and dependency. To find that the thinking of my

Thank You Kirsten!!

We would like to acknowledge our enormous gratefulness to Kirsten Blood who, for several years now, has faithfully and skillfully formatted our newsletters for us. Her growing young family is now requiring more of her time so she needs to let go of this project. We honor you in your decision to make your family ministry top priority! Kirsten and Brian are also part of our financial support team. Thanks so much Kirsten for your invaluable help!

Bonfire Bash

Neil has devised a great substitute for a men’s breakfast group: how about a men’s campfire group? (We call them the “Campfire Boys”!) The guys have had some awesome times of fellowship and discussion around the bonfire.

mind would not untangle these issues, but only by discovering lies revealed by my emotions, has made all the difference on my outlook of hope and change! 4 stair steps out of the basement of my despair! DL (She is referring to the 4 steps we use and teach in prayer counseling. It is our hope that after 3 or 4 sessions, clients would be equipped to take the 4 basic steps and use them regularly in their continued journey of emotional healing.)

So once again, how does God intend the desires of His heart to be carried out on earth? I wrote last month about God “beaming” to one of His ambassadors on earth a picture of the plan He wants carried out.

I picture it like a 1960’s television show created in the studio and then broadcast from a tower; the invisible program is snagged out of the air by antennae on our TV set (called “rabbit ears”). The signal then passed inside the cabinet through a vast array of glass tubes and is finally displayed on the screen of the massively thick and heavy television set. The picture that the producer envisioned was finally put on display for the eyes and ears of all those in our living room watching.

The bottom line is: God’s thoughts and intentions can be co-created on earth through a saint who receives the “picture” and wholeheartedly agrees with it by his declared words and inspired bold action. You and I are to be TV sets, putting on display for all humanity the Author’s character, values and intentions through our life story. When we’re not certain about His will, we can ask, “Lord, would You say ‘amen’ to this picture?” If yes, loose it/declare it boldly. If no, bind it!

Blessings to you from Capt. Neil and Crew~

News Update

The MV Inside Passage (pictured in last month’s newsletter) didn’t ‘pass muster’ to be Noble Maritime’s Retreat Cruise vessel. We’re still searching

Betsy was elected as Governor at the state capital this month during her involvement with the Christian leadership school ‘Teenpact’! See www.teenpact.com

We were totally delighted with an unexpected, impromptu gathering of a group of dear (old) friends at our house for the weekend from Oregon & Eastern Washington. We did more laughing, crying, praying and eating than we’ve done in a long time! It was a little taste of what heaven will be like!

Easter Sunday morning was a wonderful time of renewal and remembering that God sent a thorough Redeemer who did a complete work. By His death, resurrection and now indwelling, God covered all the human needs! Praise Him! Is. 53:5; John 10:10
