NEWS:

Alaska: As mentioned in our last newsletter, Neil's trip north to assist our friend, Bill was a 'God-thing'. He (Bill) keeps finding excuses to call and chat. I think he misses 'The Presence'! That story (and relationship) is not over yet!

Port Angeles: Neil did several days of salvage work with his friend John onboard "Cascade" What a kick to get paid to do something that is so much fun!!

Healing: More new retreat clients this past month! We continually see folks experiencing new freedom and joy after meeting with the Lord in our home. What a privilege to be a part of that!

Hawaii: It was fabulous to go visit Josh in Kona, using FREE frequent flyer tickets! The four of us were able to attend the "Premiere", a gala event and final showing of all the films his students have produced. We also got to meet many of his friends that we've been hearing about for 4 years. We are so proud of him.

Boat Fund: A new fund has been set up designated specifically for purchasing the ministry vessel. If you, or someone you know, would like to make a tax deductible donation to this or any other specific fund, just indicate your designation with the contribution.

House status: So far we are still rooted like dandelions! Keep those letters and packages coming to this address! :-)

Tax-deductible donations may be made to:

Noble Maritime Ministries
PO Box 1224
Anacortes, WA 98221 or with PayPal online at www.noblemaritime.com

PRAISES:

As we prepare our Fiscal Year end reports, we are amazed at what God has enabled us to do this year, like, having 240 guests in our home, 20 brand new ministry guests, who hadn't ever experienced prayer ministry previously, and nearly $25,000 in tax deductible contributions. Yeah God!

- ✎ Laptop computer for Neil - $900
